Rules of Engagement

These are the rules we follow as members of Edison Professionals

1. I promise to be truthful with the members and their referrals.
2. I promise to build trust among members and their referrals.
3. I promise to follow up on all referrals I receive.
4. I promise to provide the quality of services at my quoted price.
5. I promise to be positive and supportive to all members.
6. I promise to meet personally with each member at least once per year.
7. I promise to give back to our group with imagination and participation.

A Word About Trust

One of the founding principles of Edison Professionals is a promise to build trust among members and their referrals. Without this trust, our group will not flourish, members will not prosper, and our organization will suffer. Building trust among members and their referrals is paramount to the success of this networking group. Loyalties or alliances outside of this group might exist but should always be handled discretely and delicately. Communication with the membership team or specific members should always be pursued should there be any suspicion or doubt of loyalty to any and all members. The promise of trust must be honored and respected at all times. Membership in another business specific networking group is not recommended as it impedes the primary directive - trust.

Attendance Policy

Members of Edison Professional meet weekly. Attendance is crucial to the effectiveness and success of each member and the group. It is therefore imperative that members have exemplary attendance. Absence of more than three meetings in a 6-month period may result in membership cancellation and giving up the seat in Edison Professionals.

Absences may be avoided by arranging for a substitute (a person visitor representing your interests at our meeting)

By signing this application, applicant agrees to the Rules of Engagement (above) and the Attendance Policy and commits to build trust among all members. Membership Committee may contact all references listed. Applicant acknowledges that a background check may be performed.
